

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

WASHINGTON RECREATIONAL RIVER RUNNERS

ARTICLE I – NAME

- 1.1 NAME: This organization shall be known as Washington Recreational River Runners Association.
- 1.2 REFERENCES: References in this Constitution and By-Laws to “Association” shall refer to the Association as set forth in section 1.1 above.

ARTICLE II – TAX EXEMPT STATUS

- 2.1 TAX-EXEMPT STATUS: No provision of these By-Laws shall be construed to vest any power or authority in the Board of Directors, or any individual, director, officer, employee, or agent that is not allowed a nonprofit corporation exempt from any tax by Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE III – OBJECTIVES

- 3.1 OBJECTIVES: The Association is formed for:
- 1) The promotion of the safe, recreational use and enjoyment of all rivers.
 - 2) The provision of a means for river users to meet and exchange information, ideas, and opinions.
 - 3) To encourage adequate training in relevant river skills.
 - 4) The recognition and respect of land owner rights.
 - 5) The educational purpose of informing river users of river development plans, environmental laws which can protect river and governmental programs which can study and manage rivers.
 - 6) The Association shall encourage state-wide participation.

ARTICLE IV – GOVERNMENT

- 4.1 GENERAL POWERS: The Association shall be governed by a Board of Directors selected from active (paid) members for the Association and shall have and exercise all of the powers and authority granted by the law, the Articles of Incorporation, and by these By-Laws as herein provided.
- 4.2 COMPOSITION: The Board shall consist of nine (9) Directors. Five Directors shall be Directors-At-Large, and four Directors shall be the Officers of President, and Vice Presidents for the Association. The Board of Directors may recommend to the general membership that Director positions be created or deleted provided that no fewer than eight (8) Director positions exist. Such recommendation requires agreement by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of all the Directors and ratification by a vote of the membership. A simple majority of the votes received from the membership shall ratify. Voting by the membership on such a recommendation shall take place at the next scheduled general membership meeting.
- 4.3 DIRECTORS-AT-LARGE: A Director-At-Large is a voting member of the Board of Directors. No specific duties are assigned to a Director-At-Large other than representation for the membership on the Board of Directors. He/She may accept appointments to committees or be assigned special tasks by the Board of Directors.
- 4.4 TERM OF OFFICE: Directors-At-Large shall be elected for a one (1) year term and shall be limited to election as Director-At-Large for three (3) consecutive terms, but shall be eligible for election again after a period of one (1) year has elapsed. Each director shall hold office until his/her successor shall have been elected and qualified, unless he/she resigns or is removed.
- 4.5 ELECTION: Directors-At-Large shall be elected by the general membership of the Association, by balloting held in November of each year.

- 4.6 CHAIRPERSON: The Members of the Board of Directors shall designate one of its members as the Chairperson (Chairman of the Board) who shall preside at meetings of the Board. The Chairman shall insure that the policies and By-Laws of the Association are carried out. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Directors is temporarily unable to carry out his/her duties, the Chairman may appoint a member to the Board to carry out said duties, or in the case of resignation, long duration absence or inability, the Board may select a new Chairperson.
- 4.7 REGULAR BOARD MEETINGS: The Board of Directors shall hold regular meetings, at least once each quarter, or as designated by the Chairman. Such meetings shall be announced in advance in the newsletter; a written agenda shall be included. Provisions shall be made for Board members to attend these meetings who can't otherwise attend due to distance or other circumstances. Board meetings shall be open to the membership, and their comments are welcome; however, only Board members shall vote.
- 4.8 SPECIAL BOARD MEETINGS: There shall be Special Meetings of the Board of Directors, as requested by the Chairman of the Board, the President of the Association, or by any three members of the Board. Special Board Meetings called shall have a specific statement of the reasons for the meeting, and only such business so indicated may be voted upon at such special meetings.
- 4.9 QUORUM: A quorum of the Board, for the transaction of business, shall consist of at least one-half (1/2) of the Board members and shall include at least two (2) officers of the Association and two (2) Directors-At-Large. Ballots (votes) may not be cast in absence or proxy. Non attending Directors shall be notified by the Secretary or a designated Board member within ten (10) working days of any actions taken by the Board. Absent Directors have fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of notification to indicate in writing disagreement with the actions of the Board. When the total of absent and attending members disagreeing with the Board action exceeds the number of attending members agreeing with the action, a new vote shall be taken at the next Board meeting.
- 4.10 VACANCIES: Any vacancy on the Board of Directors, may be filled on an interim pro-tem basis, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum of the remaining Directors. The Director Pro-Tem may serve the remaining term until the next regular held election. Any Directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of Directors shall be filled by election during the annual election.
- 4.11 REMOVAL: An Officer or Director-At-Large may be suspended indefinitely, pending removal, by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Directors; removal shall be ratified by a majority vote of the Association membership attending the next General Membership meeting.
- 4.12 ABSENCES: Should any Board member be absent from two (2) consecutive regular Board meetings without reasonable excuse, as may be determined by the Board, his/her office shall be declared vacant as per section 4.11 above.
- 4.13 COMPENSATION: The Directors shall serve without compensation. However, to the extent allowed non profit corporations exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, Directors or members may be compensated for expenses incurred on Association business if such compensation is approved by a vote of the Board of Directors.
- 4.14 PRESUMPTION OF ASSENT: A Director of the Association present at a Board meeting at which action on any Association matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his/her dissent is entered in the minutes of the meeting, or unless he/she files his/her dissent to such action with the person acting as the Chairperson of the meeting before the adjournment thereof, or unless he/she forwards such dissent by certified mail to the Vice President of Business Affairs, postmarked within five (5) days after the adjournment of the meeting. A Director who voted in favor to such action may not dissent.

- 4.15 ACTIONS TAKEN BY DIRECTORS WITHOUT A MEETING: Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board, may be taken without a meeting if a written consent setting forth the action to be taken is signed by each of the Directors. Any such written consent shall be inserted in the minute book as if it were the minutes of a Board meeting.
- 4.16 RULES OF ORDER: Roberts Rules of Order shall be the rules of parliamentary procedure for use at all meetings of the Association, as appropriate.

ARTICLE V – AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- 5.1 VOTE REQUIREMENT: All actions of the Board of Directors on behalf of the Association shall be by a majority vote of a quorum, unless other requirements are specified in these By-Laws.
- 5.2 OPERATION: Without limiting the general power granted to it, the Board of Directors shall be responsible for the administration of the policies and By-Laws of the Association and its activities. The Board shall approve payments and written policies of operation including the duties of the elected officers. Such payments and policies shall be reported to the membership in the Association newsletter.

ARTICLE VI – MEMBERSHIP

- 6.1 MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Association shall be open to anyone having an interest in the recreational usage of all rivers and upon payment of the annual dues as set by the Association. Membership will be without regard to race, religion, sex, creed, or national origin.
- 6.2 DUES PAYMENT: The dues of this Association shall be payable in advance.
- 6.3 DUES AMOUNT: The Board of Directors shall by majority vote recommend an appropriate amount of annual dues to the membership for a vote at a regular membership meeting. The Board of Directors may submit a request for an assessment or change in dues to the membership at any time. Any assessments or increases in dues require notice in the Association Newsletter. The proposed assessment or increase shall be voted on by majority vote of the members attending the next scheduled General Membership meeting.
- 6.4 DELINQUENCY: Any member who shall fail to pay the dues and assessments required by this Constitution within thirty (30) days of the due date (one year from last payment), shall be notified by the Vice President of Financial Affairs, or his/her designated Board member, that he/she/they are delinquent and will be automatically suspended if payment is not made within thirty (30) days after such notice. Delinquent and suspended members are not entitled to voice or vote in Association affairs.
- 6.5 VOTING RIGHTS: All memberships shall have one vote in Association affairs.
- 6.6 GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS: General membership meetings shall be held on a regular basis, not less than once each quarter. The date, time, and place of General Membership meetings shall be announced in advance in the newsletter.
- 6.7 ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING: An Annual Membership Meeting shall be held in October. Candidates for office shall be introduced at this time. The date, time, and place of the meeting shall be announced in advance in the newsletter.
- 6.8 MEMBER CONDUCT: Members are expected to act in a civil manner towards other members and organizations that may be encountered by the member, both on and off the river.
- 6.9 REVOCATION OF MEMBERSHIP: A member who fails to conduct themselves per section 6.8 above, may have their membership revoked by the following process:

Initial Warning: After the first incident; when agreed upon by at least 2 of the 4 Officers of the Association, a written warning shall be delivered to the offending member describing the reason for the warning, and the potential for membership revocation should further incidents occur.

Final Action: After a second incident; when agreed upon by at least 3 of 4 Officers of the Association, the offending member's membership shall be revoked for the remaining duration of their annual membership without refund of membership dues paid.

- 6.10 MEMBERSHIP LEVELS – All memberships will apply to a single “household”, defined as all persons living at the same address regardless of relationship. Additional membership levels may provide benefits to members, but these do not confer additional rights.
- 6.11 THE RULE OF 85 – Any member who has been a member in good standing for at least 25 years and is at least 50 years of age will be given a free membership at the lowest paid level.
- 6.12 NEWSLETTER EDITOR – The Association recognizes that the newsletter editor position requires a substantial amount of work, and therefore the newsletter editor will receive a complimentary membership at the highest non-sponsorship level. The complimentary membership will end when the person stops being the newsletter editor.
- 6.13 GUESTS AT EVENTS – At events where the Association provides facilities, food, or other items of value that are paid for by the Association, members may bring guests. Members will be asked to make donations to help offset the cost of these guests, but the Association will not mandate the donations. The amount of the suggested donation will be decided by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII – OFFICERS AND DUTIES

- 7.1 OFFICERS: The Officers of the Association shall consist of the President, Vice President of Operations, Vice President of Business and Vice President of Financial Affairs. They shall be elected from the general membership. Officers shall be responsible for the implementation of Association policies and in charge of daily operation of the Association.
